2. Satellites:

b. [redacted] met with members of the Navy Space Systems Division on 28 February to discuss various proposals for processing of Military Satellite Communications (MILSATCOM) requirements [redacted]

[redacted] Navy supports our position that Intelligence Community (IC) requirements should continue to be submitted directly to the Office of the Secretary of Defense. Some members of the MILSATCOM Panel have suggested that these requirements should be submitted to the Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. This issue will be discussed at the MILSATCOM Panel meeting of 3 March.

c. Chief of Operations (C/OPS), and Chief, Engineering Division, were apprised of the status of the Military Satellite Communications (MILSATCOM) Panel special study group for extremely high frequency (EHF) satellite communications on 24 February. A preliminary Agency network description for use in assessing throughput and rough-order-of-magnitude costs was concurred in. C/OPS provided guidance concerning the relationships among the Intelligence Community (IC) and national program activities in the conduct of this study.
